「サステイナブルな都市」年―SCY

・SCYは、１０の研究分野を横断する２８のコースを当てはめ、市との共同の16プロジェクトに、500人以上の学生に延べ8万時間から10万時間の作業を課した。

・ニューヨークタイムス紙は、SCYを表して、「おそらく米国の大学よる、サステイナビリティを教科に取り込むと同時にコミュニティに拡げていく、最も幅の広い努力である」と報じた。

About

The UO ECOCHALLENGE celebrates Earth Week with hundreds of individual actions by UO faculty, staff, and students. Participation is simple. It takes just minutes to register and select from dozens of simple actions you can take during Earth Week. Then customize your selection to fit your lifestyle. By committing to an Ecochallenge, you'll find out how to reduce your impact, create lasting new habits, and hopefully open up dialogues about sustainability at the University of Oregon and with your family and friends too.

Whether the Ecochallenge is your first step toward a lower impact lifestyle, or you've been around the environmental block many times, we invite you to challenge yourself this April 18 – 24. We all have important roles to play in creating a sustainable future. Register today, and join a growing community of people who are taking action on behalf of our common future!

more eco-friendly painting

posted by: Skye Blaine -4/25/2011

This weekend we painted the living room. We found some paint with almost no smell, with zero VOCs: Benjamin Moore Natura. Painted the room yesterday morning, had a group of people over yesterday evening, who couldn't even tell that we had painted. Now our room has a beautiful cranberry wall, and we didn't poison
