The screenshot displays the homepage of the Hokkaido University Library. The header includes the university's name in Japanese and English, a Facebook link, and a navigation bar with links like HOME, Japanese, Hokkaido Univ., Contact (Central & North Lib), Contacts (Branches), and Access. A secondary navigation bar contains Search, Service Guide, Library Web Services, Learning/Teaching, Research, and About Library. The 'Library Web Services' menu is open, showing options such as Check Status of Loan/Reservation, Book Request, Purchase Request, Check Status of Purchase Request, InterLibraryLoan/Photocopy Request, Check Status of Loan/Photocpy, Check Current Budget Status, Check Budget Data, and About Registration. The 'Check Status of Loan/Reservation' option is highlighted in green. A red arrow points from this option to a text box at the bottom of the slide. The background of the website features images of library interiors and a 'Today's Opening Hours' section for Central and North Libraries.

You can extend the loan period on Hokkaido University Library's website.

Use the other libraries of Hokkaido University

You can use the other libraries of Hokkaido University by bringing your own student / staff / library card.

The loan limit is separately set by each library.
So you can borrow
3 books from Northern Campus Library and
8 books from North Library at the same time.

You can not return the materials borrowed from Northern Campus Library to the other libraries.

If you need the material in Hakodate Campus, which has the fisheries science library, you can order the book loan service for free.
In that case, please let staff know.
