Universitas Gadjah Mada
INDONESIA

History of Universitas Gadjah Mada

- Universitas Gadjah Mada was established on December 19, 1949, a time when the Republic of Indonesia which has just established must maintain its independence from the Netherland's desire to recolonize it
- The history of Universitas Gadjah Mada is closely related to the struggle of Indonesian people

Independence means

- Having political sovereignty
- Self-reliance economically
- Having cultural identity

Could be achieved through education

The Three Missions of Universitas Gadjah Mada

- Education
- Research
- Community Development

In its early days, Universitas Gadjah Mada give public lectures for the community, in addition to the general public also attended high school and junior high school students

In its early days, Universitas Gadjah Mada sent volunteer students to teach and set up a high school outside Java. Until 1962, UGM has sent 1218 students and helping the government to set up 109 high school outside of Java

Institute for Community Services was established in 1959
