Annotations on the page include:

Background

Trade Policy Reviews are an exercise, mandated in the WTO agreements, in which member countries' trade and related policies are examined and evaluated at regular intervals. Significant developments that may have an impact on the global trading system are also monitored. All WTO members are subject to review, with the frequency of review depending on the country's size.

Schedule of forthcoming reviews

Pakistan: 24 & 26 March 2015
 Australia: 21 & 23 April 2015
 India: 2 & 4 June 2015
