

HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY

|                  |                                                                                   |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Title            | Authors                                                                           |
| Citation         | Journal of the Faculty of Humanities and Human Sciences, 20                       |
| Issue Date       | 2025-02                                                                           |
| Doc URL          | https://hdl.handle.net/2115/94107 |
| Type             | other                                                                             |
| File Information | 07_Authors.pdf                                                                    |

Authors

Eijun SENAHA, Ph.D., is Professor of English, whose original discipline is 19th C. British and 20th C. American literatures. He now focuses more on gender and sexuality studies and has published books and articles as he also orally presented nationally and internationally. He is recently interested in intersectionality and DEI studies. For more information, please visit <https://researchmap.jp/read/0052183>, <http://senaha-hokudai.sakura.ne.jp/index.html> and/or contact june@let.hokudai.ac.jp.

Shunichi MIYAJIMA, Ph.D., is Professor of Religious Studies, Graduate School of Humanities and Human Science, Hokkaido University, Japan. His major areas of research include 1) theories and methods in religious studies, 2) history of the comparative study of religion, 3) spirituality and religion, 4) bioethics research including perspectives of death and life studies.
(<http://www.let.hokudai.ac.jp/en/staff/1-3-05>)
(miyajima@let.hokudai.ac.jp)

Jianglin ZHANG, a PhD candidate in Chinese Cultural Studies, Graduate School of Letters, Hokkaido University, Japan. Her research focuses on the development of Southern Song poetry, the Qing Dynasty's reception of Song Ci, and theories of literary reception.
(fiona.zjlckr@gmail.com)